Acts 20:27-31

For I have not hesitated to proclaim to you the _____ will of _____.²⁸ Keep watch over _____ and all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers. Be _____ of the church of God, which he bought with his own blood.²⁹ I know that after I leave, savage _____ will come in among you and will not spare the _____.³⁰ Even from your own number men will arise and distort the truth in order to draw away disciples after them.³¹ So be on your _____! Remember that for three years I never stopped warning each of you night and day with tears.

Today we are talking about sheep, wolves, and shepherds. We aren't talking about actual sheep and wolves, though; we are talking about you and me! God calls us His sheep and He is our shepherd. We must always be wary of things that try and steal us away from God!

See if you can spot the differences hiding in the pictures below!

What did Mrs. Savina talk about today?

KIDSCORNER

Part of identifying wolves in our lives is identifying how we are remaining "shallow" in our faith with God. Can you think of some practices you can focus on to get closer to God?

I'll go first... I want to read my Bible every day!

Okay! Now it's your turn!

I want to _____

When we practice the things that keep us close to God (our Shepherd), we (the sheep) don't have to fear being taken from him (the wolves)!

This Week's Prayer:

Dear Lord Jesus, I thank you for Your love and protection! I pray that You would help me to watch out for the things that steal me away from spending time with You! Teach me to seek You in everything that I do! In Jesus' name, Amen.
